The University of Arizona

Joseph Gross Gallery

The University of Arizona Museum of Art and the Joseph Gross Gallery at the UA School of Art present LOST IN THE WOODS, an exhibition that investigates the endless variety of human relationships to perception and knowledge. Through a exciting combination of contemporary and historical works, the exhibition considers nature and culture, imagination and spirituality—among other forces—and the stories, legends, maps and paths that guide (or mislead) us through life.

Escape the summer heat ...
see what lies deep in the woods.
